Okay, this is at least a new interesting mechanic, but the game just doesn't work for me. I almost feel like it is trying too hard and delivers too little.. Okay, this is at least a new interesting mechanic, but the game just doesn't work for me. I almost feel like it is trying too hard and delivers too little.. The gardens between is. 1.Relaxing -> Visually beautiful, fresh and dreamy. 2.Relaxing -> with nice ambient and natural sounds, 3.Relaxing -> with no text,no speech,no time pressure,no UI, 4.Relaxing -> with simple controls and simple puzzles 5.Relaxing -> that prevent almost any feeling of excitement and accomplishment. Puzzle lovers should buy on sale. PS:Characters have a.. The art style is very pleasing, and the game has a certain charm to it that I really liked throughout the experience, but the actual gameplay is slow and simple. Many times throughout the game I felt like I had already solved a puzzle early in advance. The solution was clear, I just had to wait to complete the steps. Steps that are a slog to complete due to the slow walk speed of the characters, and the constant backtracking that the time travel mechanic forces you through. The puzzles themselves are too simple. As stated above you usually find yourself solving the puzzle, or whatever phase of the puzzle you are on, in your own mind, much sooner then when the game lets you complete them. There were no moments that really made me stop and think about the solution for any longer than 30 seconds. And the length of the game is short. I finished it in about 2 hours. When half the game is backtracking, it makes it even worse. For the sale price of $7.99 this game is pretty decent. But I can't recommend it at all at the normal price of 20 bucks considering the length of the game and lack of quality puzzles..
